Notes: Moved to Benn., VT, 1768, per son's Rev. War pension, (File No. W8029)

Land: Probably was the Josiah who sold land to Jos.⁵ PALMER (Sam¹/4, Thos.³, Sam¹/2, Thos./1)

Questions: 1) John was age 13 when his father died. Who were his guardians? Lived where 1759-1768?

2) Did he go to Benn. Vt. in 1768 with his brother Josiah?

3) Did he go to either Mass. or CT and marry Mary⁵ CLEVELAND? (Josiah⁴,³,², Moses¹) and return?

Notes:- There is usage of N.S. in Mary Cleveland's gd. father's family: her gd. father Josiah's death and two uncles, Ebenezer and Aaron (Cleveland Gen., pp. 79, 171, 175)

- Another uncle, Rev. John Cleveland (p. 165) "one of most prominent characters of the family" was highly educated, traveled extensively in New England, Yale grad. as was Ebenezer.

- Mary's bro. Moses, m. 1768, Canterbury; moved 1780 No. Pawlet, VT.; d. Pawlet, VT 1820, (p. 342)

- Mary's older sister Lois who was well educated, and age 16 when their mother died in 1755. (p. 341)

- The birth years for Mary CLEVELAND and her siblings may be in N.S.. For, if Mary died ae 88 Feb. 27, 1836, per her tombstone, her birth year would have been 1748 N.S. Mary CLEVELAND was born Jan. 6, 1748 (P. 161) The year cannot be changed to 1749, or the age on her tombstone would have been ae. 87. [Mary's actual birth date may have been Dec. 27, 1747 (O.S.), rah]

- John LAWRENCE bought land in Lot 6, in 1770, next to land in Lot 6 owned by Josiah Lawrence.

Dear Uncle,

You wished me to keep you posted and I think I am right on the post so here goes. I wrote to Mrs. Morgan of Bennington (VT) and she wrote me that her grandmother was a daughter of Jonathan Lawrence and I received another letter from Mrs. Bigelow that this Mary Lawrence was her grandfather's sister. Today I received a second letter from Mrs. Morgan with the following records from Norwich (Connecticut) enclosed. I sent you a copy.

(Was Mrs. Morgan relative of Monkton Morgans?)

Dear Marj:

thank you for sharing with us the two very interesting letters written by Anna Day in 1886. I think the best way to comment on the content of the letters is to take up each topic and name as it appears in each of the letters, beginning with the letter of January, 1886.

JONATHAN LAWRENCE: We have no information about this man in our research material, nor can we say what his relationship to our Lawrence line might be. We have not come across the name ELIZABETH BUTRICK, nor the name EXPERIENCE as the daughter of Jonathan. We can speculate, and this is pure speculation without any foundation, that the JONATHAN LAWRENCE being described here is Josiah Lawrence's brother, Jonathan, who was born 15 April, 1736. It is logical that the brothers Josiah, Jacob and Jonathan settled with their families in Fishkill, N.Y., on their way to Bennington, Vt. We do not have any data that shows Jonathan Lawrence in Bennington, although we do have data on a JOHN LAWRENCE there.

The Norwich, Ct
13 Nov

ANCESTRY OF ANNA DAY: Our data supports Anna's statement that she was the daughter of JOSIAH MUMFORD and that Josiah Mumford was the son of Mary Lawrence Mumford and that Mary Lawrence Mumford was the daughter of Josiah Lawrence and Mary Branch of Morwich, Ct. Anna does not say so, but the husband of Mary Lawrence was Deacon Robinson Mumford. Our data conflicts with Anna's as to the father of Josiah Lawrence. More on that below.

BIRTH OF JOSIAH LAWRENCE: The records of Norwich, Ct., give Josiah's birth date as 1734 (Anna mistakenly writes 1785). Anna refers to SAMUEL LAWRENCE. Apparently, Porter Lawrence in Illinois had mentioned this name. Our data, of course, shows this Samuel Lawrence as the father of Josiah Lawrence and his brother Jonathan.

LETTER OF FEBRUARY 1886: ALMON LAWRENCE. This man is in my branch of the Lawrence family. He is the brother of Henry Lawrence and son of Diah Lawrence. Henry's daughter, Celia Emma, was my paternal grandmother.

THE MARY TOWNLEY TRADITION: Anna comments on Porter Lawrence's mention of Mary Townley. (Marj, we may have mentioned in the past that Henry Lawrence, my great-grandfather, wrote an account of his family history before his death. He opens that account with a brief discussion of the Mary Townley legend. He states as follows: "This is a tradition which I have heard from those older than myself, but who are not now living, that Mary, daughter of Lord Townley in England, became betrothed to the captain of a merchant vessel by the name of John Lawrence and was opposed by her father with a threat of disinheritance; but not withstanding her father's displeasure, made their way to this country clandestinely; and from whom we descend in direct line." Henry goes on to say that if the story is true, it probably took place early in the history of the country, when little attention was given to records, and that it would be very difficult to prove the legend.)

There is an undertone in Anna's letter that Almon and other Monkton Lawrences were suspicious about the authenticity of this story. As mentioned above, Vital Records of Norwich, Ct., seem conclusively to establish Josiah Lawrence's father as Samuel, and Samuel's father to be Isaac. Isaac Lawrence died 19 April 1731, at age 73. Our data does not conclusively establish that Isaac was the immigrant ancestor in this line. There may have been time for a sea captain to have come in the early 1600s, possibly the father of Isaac, but no record of such a Jonathan or John has been found. If there were a Jonathan who had a daughter Experience who joined Josiah and others in New York and Vermont, that Jonathan was more likely Josiah's brother.

I am forwarding a copy of this letter to John and Jean Lawrence. Let me know if I can be of further help. It is good to hear from you.

Proclamation. 1814.—The Recorder has been furnished by N. J. Peritt, Esq., with the following interesting document from the original in the possession of Mr. Charles A. Milliken, of Malden, Mass.

(Work project paper on John Lawrence, b. 19 Feb. 1745-6 S/O of Sam'l & Mary below.)

Whereas, Sir John Sherbrooke did by proclamation capture all that part of the District of Maine lying between the Penobscot & St. Croix Rivers for and in behalf of His Majesty the King of Great Britain, I do by all the power in me vested declare it recaptured excepting Casimire & Esposito for and in behalf of the United States of America, and the subjects thereof having again become citizens are hereby ordered to conduct themselves accordingly.

And whereas, it has been customary for British officers to declare large extent of sea coasts in a state of blockade without a sufficient force to enforce such blockade, I do by my power as aforesaid declare all the Ports, Harbors, Rivers, Bays, and Inlets from the River Penobscot to the River St. Croix that remain in actual possession of the King in a state of rigorous blockade, having under my command a sufficient force to enforce the same, and the officers under my command are hereby ordered to govern themselves accordingly.

Done on board the Schooner Faun in Mischias River this 17th day of November 1814 and mailed to the Flagstaff of the Port at Mischias.

Note.—Mr. Isaac Lawrence, Sen., was the son of John Lawrence, originally of Groton, but afterwards of Groton, Mass. He "Publicly owned by Covenant into Full Communion" in 1702. He was, as was his son Isaac Lawrence, Jr., one of the seven members—"the seven pillars on which the church rested"—forming Rev. Daniel Kirtland (the father of the Rev. Samuel Kirtland, the famous mission-ary to the Oneida Indians, and the grandfather of John Thornton Kirtland, president of Harvard College, 1810-1828) was another of the seven and their first pastor. Our town records spell the name "Lawrence," though in every case it is spelled "Lawrence" by the family and in the church records. The earliest town records exist only in a copy.

GENEALOGICAL.—Alvan Talbot, M.D., of Guilford, Conn., will furnish in MS. for a moderate consideration, extended genealogical notes of the descendants of any of the early fathers of Guilford. The records will be arranged in families in a regular order, giving dates of birth, marriage and death, and bringing the line down to the present time, covering about two hundred and fifty years. The families bear- ing the following names have their records nearly completed: Bartlett, Benton, Bishop, Blackaby, Bradley, Bristol, Burges, Chittenden, Conn, Collins, Crampton, Crutenden, Dord, Dudley, Everts, Field, Fowler, Graves, Griswold, Hall, Hand, Hart, Hill, Hochkies, Hubbard, Johnson, Kimberly, Landon, Lee, Leslie, Meigs, Mudgett, Murray, Norton, Parmelee, Pierson, Robinson, Rosetter, Rugles, Russell, Scranton, Seward, Shelley, Starr, Stone, Weld, Willard. Extensive notes can also be given of the following: Baldwin, Coe, Conklin, Davis, Foster, French, Hopkin, Hoyt, Jones, Kirkham, Soper, Spencer, Stevens, Telford, Wall, Walker, Ward, Wilcox.

Source Record EXAMINATIONS.—The Government has made provision for examinations which are purely antiquarian or genealogical, without office fees, it being distinctly understood that such examinations have no legal bearing. In order to obtain permission, the person for whom the work is to be done must apply by letter to Thomas Dickson, Esq., Curator of the Historical Department, of As the Government must be well satisfied as regards the antiquarian or genealogical character of the work, it would be well to state, in asking permission, that the examinations will be conducted by some one well known at Edinburgh. No better name could be suggested than the Rev. Walter MacLeod, for he is considered the man there for such work, his charges are reasonable, and he acts there for the leading libraries and antiquarian societies. A. D. W. FRASER.

The following is a letter written by Will Parsons to Porter J. Lawrence in regard to the possible heirship to the Lawrence/Townley Estates, dated November 8, 1885. Copies of the hand written letter have been made and I will include those copies in the information that has been accumulated. Any parenthetical remarks in the body of the letter are my comments which may clarify or personalize the word or statements.

RLJ

Cleveland, O. Nov. 8/85

Dear Uncle Porter,

I have not heard from you for some time, not since I wrote last. We expected a call from you this summer, and also that we should have another struggle with the fish in Lake Erie. We read an account of the meeting of the Lawrence/Townley heirs in Detroit, in a Detroit paper sent me by Mr. Harkness, a son of a Mr. Harkness who attended the meeting as one of the heirs. (copies of those reports appeared in the Detroit Free Press and are included in the information section. I believe they are self explanatory and dealt primarily with an organized way to approach the claim on heirship of the English property.)

A Mr. Jaques living in this town that I am well-acquainted recently returned from the East where he went to bury his mother who was a Lawrence and claimed to be one of the heirs. He has frequently, he tells me, within the last few months written her to get what information he could in relation to her genealogy, but of late years and old age had so impaired her memory that she could tell him nothing about it. He brought with him from the East a work brought out by a John Lawrence covering 191 pages and containing the genealogy of the Lawrences. I do not know whether you have ever seen it, but as you have never mentioned it, suppose you have not seen it- The work was brought out in 1857 and not many of them were published and put in circulation. I should like to have you look at (it) but as I have promised to return it in a day or two as Mr. Jaques has to return it to the owner, John Lawrence, I have done the next best thing-made an abstract from it. The owner considers himself a Lawrence/Townley heir. Should the matter ever be settled he will trip up on it as I will explain further on. And now to the condensed abstract I send you-

On the 14th page, written last where it should have been written first, is a short account of Archbishop Lawrence, who it appears, was an Italian and died in 916 (A.D.), nearly 1,000 years ago. On page 1 we have Robert Lawrence of Lancashire, born about 1150 and knighted Sir Robert of Ashton Hall in 1191. Who he sprung from cannot say unless it was from the 1st Lawrence who was the Archbishop of Canterbury, but as he was a monk of the church of Rome, and as monks don't marry, I would be afraid to suggest that Sir Robert of Ashton Hall sprung from him as all of the Lawrences in America and England evidently sprung from Sir Robert. Still, I don't think that your feelings would be much wounded and lacerated even if you ancestor, the monk, did raise a few children out of wedlock. Sue (wife of Will Parsons-Susan Jane Jackson, a sister of John A. Jackson thus a daughter of the Asahel Hyde Jackson/Phoebe Sherman Lawrence union) says she don't feel the least mad over it, even if such was the case. As it must have occurred about 1,000 years ago. Please break the news gently to mother Jackson (Phoebe Lawrence) the possibility of her ancestor being the monk Laurentius and that he died only a short time ago- about 1,000 years.

Covering pages 1, 2, and 3, we have the names in direct line of descent, from Sir Robert of Ashton Hall to Henry Lawrence of the 16th generation. Now all the Lawrences of 15 generations had other sons and daughters besides those mentioned, who became heads of families, who, each in turn had their descendants and formed branches of the genealogical tree.

Henry of the 16th generation emigrated to America with his son John the founder apparently of the American Lawrences. The genealogy is incomplete but as correct of course as could be got at the time the work was brought out.

The 8th generation must be very incomplete as to numbers for it should be at least 4 or 5 times as large as the 7th generation. I notice in the book and invitation for all Lawrences to send information in relation to their families and I think from that that a later and enlarged edition of the work must have been published years ago but the publication of these kinds of works are always limited. I further think that the original design of the work was in reference to the claim on the Lawrence/Townley Estate for I see a notation that Isaac Lawrence of Gardiner, Maine interested himself in the matter and went to England in behalf of claimants and, came back again- Pages 4 to 13 embraces the generations of Lawrences as far as could be got at the time. The first names are all Lawrences, male and female. The last names are the wives and husbands of the Lawrences, male and female. I have only written the given names except in a few places where I have written L- which stand for Lawrence. So far no heads of families show 308-. The first generation commencing with John of Watertown being the father of the 2nd generation- the 2nd generation fathers and mothers of the 3rd generation and so on. You will see I have written the month of birth of each Lawrence in the margin. I think the 7th generation would be your generation. Examine it closely, see if you can recognize an names and places of residence of any of them that you are familiar with and if you can claim relationship to them, or any of them. If you can claim any of them, you may consider yourself and family out on the Lawrence/Townley claim.

Now to more fully explain. John Lawrence of Watertown was born in 1609. His first wife was Elizabeth. His second wife, Susanna, daughter of William Batchelder of Charlestown. He died in Groton (Connecticut) July 11, 1667. Now John Lawrence married Mary Townley in 1695 [change the chart sent you from 1639 to 1693]. Two children John and Jonathan were born [twins] in 1695. These two children survived him, so as the older of the twins, John, died at the age of 2 years. John Lawrence, the father must have died between 1695 and 1697, Now John Lawrence who married Mary Townley was perhaps not born within the 75 years of the time of John Lawrence of Watertown who died in 1667 and did not marry Mary Townley till 28 years had elapsed after the death of John Lawrence of Watertown. I am persuaded in my own mind that but a few of the Lawrences are acquainted with these facts, and are perhaps paying in money when they could not possibly establish a claim if they sprung from John Lawrence of Watertown. To establish a claim when that estate is divided[and there is no doubt it will be] it must be shown that every Lawrence making the claim must have Mary Townley blood in his veins, as the estate comes from the Townley side of the house. I see at the meeting in Detroit the name of Townley as a claimant. Sir Richard Townley's stock on the male side died out. The descendants of the Townleys, who were perhaps brothers or cousins or connections of Sir Richard Townley, cannot establish a claim any more than anybody else. The claimant must have Mary Townley's blood in them, except in the case of all the Townley/Lawrence dying out, then the heirship would go back to the nearest blood relative of Mary Townley and then down the line of descent again to the surviving heirs. I hope you will find in this list of names sent you no relatives, for, if you do, your cake is dough as far as any claim to the Townley estate is concerned. This genealogy is a revelation to me as I suppose it will be to you if you did not know it before. I feel sure I am correct in the view I have taken on this matter.

I send you on page 15 the copy of the opinion of Sir William H. G. Collis- solicitor of the high court of Chancery, Ireland, in relation to the claim of William T. Lawrence to the entailed property. Also the opinion of Messrs. Blake, Kear and Boyd, given in 1876. This I got from Mr. Clark recently. He is the holder of $10,000 of the Lawrence/Townley bonds. His claim, when acknowledged and made good, will bring up with it the claims of the balance of the claimants that can be proven. I shall do what I can to dig for more information. In the meantime, I should like to hear from you. With love to all believe me.

Yours sincerely,

Will Parsons

P.S. I should like to hear from you as soon as you get time.

HISTORICAL GENEALOGY

OF THE

INTRODUCTION.

ALTHOUGH in common with other kindred minds, I have long regarded the high destinies of my ancestral name as a valuable inheritance, I should not have bestowed so long a period of labor to the subject of the following pages, had not information, circulated through various channels, both in Europe and the United States reached me, that a large property belonging to my family was lying in Great Britain awaiting a call from its legitimate owners. On making inquiry into particulars, I furthermore was apprized that this property had belonged to Sir Richard Townley, whose daughter Mary was married to Joseph Lawrence, of Flushing, in or about the year 1690. Charles Townley, the father of Richard, took part with the friends of religious freedom against the treacherous and oppressive measures of Charles the First, of England, and fell at the battle of Marston Moor, when the defenders of liberty (under Cromwell) prostrated the fanatical adherents of that crowned tyrant. On the restoration of that old dynasty under Charles the Second, England presented a scene of implacable hostility to all who were connected by blood or interest with the government or fortunes of the late Protector. Charles Townley was dead and his effects were long since disposed of, but his son, Sir Richard, possessed of a large estate, became the subject of merciless sequestration. It is now said that the spoils of this savage warfare, have been held in some public depository; and under the milder influence of succeeding monarchs, is yet attainable by such as can exhibit an authenticated title to them. To me it has seemed that this amelioration of a policy which stained the character of Charles the Second and his government, is rendered probable by the fact that Francis Howard, who married the youngest sister of Mary Townley, namely, Dorothy Townley, was afterwards made Baron Howard; of Effingham, and on the 8th of December, 1731, received further honor by being created first Earl of Effingham. And it is from this connection that the name of Effingham Lawrence has attained a frequency on this side of the Atlantic, amongst the family down to the present day. I have introduced these facts and probabilities, to show what incitements led me on to investigate the records yet accessible, in order to sustain my own pretensions to the property of Mary Townley, from whom I am lineally and legitimately descended. In the course of this investigation, I have met with inducements to pursue the subject upon a broader field; for I have perceived in the position which the descendants of the three brothers, emigrants from Europe, namely, John, William, and Thomas Lawrence, have sustained of honor, dignity and distinction, that I trust it will be regarded as a venial offence if pride of family has led me into inquiries beyond my first intentions, to gather up from previous publications, and from every other source of information, an entire Genealogy of the original transatlantic pioneers of this family down to the present time. In the expenditure of making known to others the result of this now widely extended labor, I have hopes of being aided by many not interested in the Townley Estate, and to make the following details worthy of their patronage, I have traced them with a determination to be accurate throughout. Doubtless it will be found as has been already discovered in previous publications upon the same subject, that in a family distributed throughout Europe, Asia, and America, wherever freedom of conscience and beneficent civilization is predominant, many retired individuals will have escaped notice ; and in order to enable such of them as are desirous of being numbered with the rest in my future repetition of this my first effort, I have given to each family reservation blank pages at the conclusion of its letter-press matter, to fill up by their manuscript additions, whatever is deficient in the present text. I invite all such to aid me in any further edition.

And I present to them as a security on my part, deserving of their confidence, the correctness of this compilation.

THOMAS LAWRENCE,

of Providence, R. I.

NEW YORK, July 4, 1858.

LAWRENCE AND TOWNLEY CONNECTION.

Extracted from the documents of Lewis P. Hunt, on his return from England in November, 1857, which is the most reliable information that has yet been made public in relation to the above named families.

The Townley Estate is of many millions, and situated in Lancashire.

The Lawrence Estate is in Chancery.

The two families of Lawrence and Townley are connected by the marriage of Joseph Lawrence with Mary Townley, daughter of Sir Richard Townley, of England, who was possessed of considerable Estate in Lancashire.

The foundation of this family of the Townley, is this :

Richard Townley, Esq., the ancestor of Townley of Lancaster, born in 1628, married Margaret Paston, daughter of Clemant Paston, Esq., of Barnington, in Norfolk, and had thirteen children, to wit :

First, Clemant, second, Richard, both died young ; third, Charles, heir to his father ; fourth, John, died in infancy ; fifth, John, a monk ; sixth, Richard, born in 1664 ; seventh, Thomas, born in 1668 ; eighth Mary, married Joseph Lawrence ; ninth, Anne ; tenth, Dorothy, married to Francis Howard, Esq., of Corby, in Cumberland, afterwards Lord Effingham ; eleventh, Frances, married to Cuthbert Kennet, Esq., of Coxhow ; twelfth, Margaret, and thirteenth, Cicely, both nuns, and died at Fasser St. Victoir, in Paris.

William Townley, Esq., of Townley, grandson and successor to the above Richard, was married to the only daughter and sole heir of Ralph Standish, Esq., of Standish, by Lady Philippa Howard, daughter of Henry

Howard, sixth Duke of Norfolk ; and are consequently connected :

The Lawrence Estate and Townley ;

The Townley Estate and Standish ;

And the Lawrence Estate.

Not one of those three estates has been settled yet ; so upon proving the relationship to one of those three families, Lawrence, Townley, and Standish, this relation would by possibility be entitled to those three estates.

Examination in the special Lawrence case or cases in America.

The parties in America are producing a certificate of marriage of Richard Lawrence, son of Joseph Lawrence, with Hannah Bowne.

Those two names John, and Joseph, keep in the family, and found in the Lawrence pedigree of England. First reason to believe that there is a connection between these two families.

The date of the marriage and the birth are also perfectly corresponding.

This Richard, the son of Joseph, was married in 1717, he must be supposed to be born about from 1680, to 1690.

The brothers formerly said to have gone to America about 1635. This Joseph, was son, no doubt to one of those two brothers.

We must conclude from those premises and facts, that the pedigree from America, as descending from William Lawrence and Elizabeth Smith, as being the father and mother of Joseph Lawrence and Mary Townley, who have great chance of success.

The great point in that matter should be to identify the first ancestor, William Lawrence, to the second ancestor, Joseph Lawrence, as being connected with this American Lawrence family, as originally coming from England.

One strong opinion is, that the pedigree in the Lawrence case, of the Lawrence and Townley and Hunt, has the greater chance of success.

In corroboration of this present statement and conclusion, it should appear useful, and indeed indispensable, to examine separately first, and after comparatively, with the American pedigree, all the other pedigrees of the Lawrence families in England, either produced into court, or communicated between the solicitors of the case.

There are about twenty-five pedigrees produced, and all the pedigrees produced before the court till the present time have failed, or could not be proved in any way.

And all the pedigrees being in the hands of the Solicitors, or known in the case, could not establish any solid claim.

It has been stated in the various debates, that the three brothers died, leaving no children in England.

This capital point proves that in order to trace out the Lawrence pedigree, it may be only by the descendants, that is to say, the ancestors.

The documents of the said Lewis P. Hunt, states that there is therein enumerated the various sources and records, were it not only possible, but quite sure, to find the necessary evidence.

We beg most respectfully to submit the following form of identity to the Lawrence and Townley families, for the benefit of all families interested :

In the first place, to identify the first ancestor, William Lawrence, with the second ancestor, Joseph Lawrence, we produce the certificate of license for the marriage of Mr. William Lawrence and Elizabeth Smith, and letters of administration granted to Elizabeth Lawrence, the widow of William Lawrence deceased, together with a conveyance of the said Elizabeth Lawrence in execution of her trust, as also a certificate of guardianship of her seven children, (see appendix, A. B. and C.)

We claim this to be the strongest proof of the identity of Elizabeth Lawrence, alias Carterett, alias Townley, as the lawful wife of William Lawrence first above named.

Secondly. By quit claim deed, made by Joseph Lawrence of Flushing, to Joseph Bonny of Woodbridge, in the province of East New Jersey, in the year 1735, as identifying the second ancestor, Joseph Lawrence, with the said Elizabeth Lawrence above identified as the lawful wife of the first ancestor, William Lawrence, who came over from England to America as aforesaid (see Appendix D).

Thirdly. We further offer a certificate of marriage of Richard Lawrence, eldest son of Joseph Lawrence, with Hannah Bowne, daughter of Samuel Bowne and Mary Becket, as also Joseph Lawrence's will, to prove the identity of the third ancestor, Richard Lawrence, with the second ancestor, Joseph Lawrence (see Appendix E. and F).

Fourthly, We offer a certificate of marriage of Stephanas Hunt with Lydia Lawrence, daughter of Richard Lawrence, together with Richard Lawrence's will, to identify the fourth ancestor, Stephanas Hunt, with the third ancestor, Richard Lawrence (see Appendix R. and G).

Fifthly. By a deed of Josiah Hunt and Elizabeth his wife, with two attesting witnesses (as the marriage certificate is destroyed), as also Stephanas Hunt's will, as identifying the fifth ancestor, Josiah Hunt, with the fourth ancestor, Stephanas Hunt (see appendix M).

This completes the identity of the first ancestor, William Lawrence, with the fifth ancestor, Josiah Hunt.

All the above parties we claim to be established by first class testimony, and the strongest known to the Federal Law, except the marriage of Joseph Lawrence with Mary Townley, and of that we have a traditionary account from our forefathers, together with Holgate's Genealogy of distinguished families, and letters from H. G. Summerby, Esq., of London, and the Honorable Ex-Governor William Beach Lawrence of Newport, Rhode Island, to Mr. Thomas Lawrence of Providence, Rhode Island. In corroboration of the statements made in said letter, as also Holgate's Genealogy herein-before mentioned, we beg to offer and claim as corroborating testimony, the signature of Joseph Lawrence and Mary his wife, in their own proper hand-writing, subscribed to the certificate of marriage of their eldest son Richard Lawrence with Hannah Bowne, as witnesses thereto (see appendix Q).

The two above named estates, Townley and Standish, descends to the Lawrence family, by intermarriage in the following manner, to wit: Cecilia, daughter of Ralph Standish, Esq., and Philippa Howard, became before her death, the sole heiress of her grandfather, Henry Howard, sixth Duke of Norfolk. The said Cecilia Standish married Sir William Townley; by said marriage the property became vested in the Townley family; and, by defect of heirs, descends to Mary Townley, who married Joseph Lawrence.

identifying the first ancestor Joseph Hunt with the fourth ancestor, Stephen Hunt (see appendix M). This completes the identity of the first ancestor, William Lawrence, with the fifth ancestor, Joseph Hunt.

All the above parties we claim to be established by first class testimony, and the strongest known to the Federal Law, except the marriage of Joseph Lawrence with Mary Towney, and of that we have a testimony account from our forefathers, together with Higgins's Genealogy of distinguished families and letters from H. G. Sommers, Esq., of London, and the Honorable Sir Governor William Beach Lawrence of New York, 1804.

land, to Mr. Thomas Lawrence of Providence Island. In correspondence of the station said letter, as also Higgins's Genealogy, family papers mentioned, we hope to offer and make an extraordinary testimony, the signature of Joseph Lawrence and Mary his wife, in their own proper hand-writing, subscribed to the certificate of marriage of their eldest son Richard Lawrence with Hannah Howe, as witnesses Charles (see appendix Q).

The two above named estates, Towney and Standish, descended to the Lawrence family by inheritance in the following manner, to wit: Cecilia, daughter of Ralph Standish, Esq., and Philip Howard, became his first wife, the sole heiress of her grandfather, Henry Howard, sixth Duke of Norfolk. The said Cecilia Standish married Sir William Towney, by said marriage the property became vested in the Towney family, and, by deed of bequest, descended to Mary Towney, who married Joseph Lawrence.

CONTINUING THE SEARCH ON "Who's your daddy?" FOR 4th GREAT GRANDFATHER'S FATHER, JOHN LAWRENCE (1748)

In the file, The Lawrence-Townley Estate Search, there is a letter from one Simeon Lawrence addressed to Porter Lawrence in which Simeon provides what he knew about his ancestry to Mr. Lawrence. It is clear that Simeon was one of the youngest of the children and seemed to have little knowledge of his past heritage. He did, however, mention Meigs County, Ohio as the locale of one of his brothers, Henry S. Lawrence. I have done a brief search using the internet and have come up with the following information.

John Lawrence, Simeon's father, was born about 1780. This estimate is based upon the birth ages of his seven children. It also appears that he lived and raised his children in Schenectady, New York. He was born in Canaan, Connecticut. John married Mary Townsend, b. 1784, in Hartford, Connecticut in 1804.
